Meticulously renovated with classic appointments this town home is located in the desirable Scottsdale Hills neighborhood with a charming community pool. High vaulted ceilings create volume and natural light for the main floor living area. The floor plan showcases three bedrooms with two master suites. One master bedroom resides upstairs, and the second one is conveniently located on the first floor. Step outside to the private picturesque spacious backyard featuring a lap pool with a charming pergola covering the oversized patio. This home represents unprecedented quality, style and value.
